

CIVIC EDUCATION FORUMS 2001

The object and location of the action

- The object of the action was to strength the capacity of Non governmental organizations in implementation of programs, to develop a joint strategy for democracy related issues
- To assist NGOs in developing technical skills to strengthen their activities

Location: Nigeria

The results of the action

- Organization of civic education forum on “citizenship, gender and Participation in the electoral process and governance’. Organization of civic education forum on “Enabling environment and Constitutionalism in Nigeria’ Organization of civic education Forum on ‘ Constraints , challenges and Strategies : a new approach to civic education in Nigeria’ Organization of civic education forum on ‘ Combating election related violence : the role of civil society’ Organized training workshop for 16 civil society organizations on project management , impact assessment and report writing skills Published reports of civic education forum and distributed it to various stakeholders across Nigeria. Civic education projects were carried out by the 16 civil society organizations (earlier trained) across Nigeria.

Organization’s role and degree of involvement in the action: Managed by TMG secretariat in conjunction with zonal and state coordinators. The implementation of the civic education projects were monitored by the TMG Secretariat

Donors to the action

United Nations Electoral Assistance Division
C/o UNDP Nigeria