

MONITORING OF THE NIGERIAN POLITICAL SCENE UP TO THE 2003 ELECTIONS

The object and location of the action

The object of the project was to examine the preparations of the Independent National Electoral Commission towards managing the 2003 Nigerian general elections, monitor the pre election activities of all the political parties, train and deploy 2,000 voter registration observers, set up TMG national secretariat in Abuja.

Location Nigeria

The results of the action

- Trained and deployed 2,000 observers during 2002 voter registration exercise.
- Set up TMG national office in Abuja and provided administrative support in terms of personnel and office equipment.
- Monitored the conduct of party primaries and produced report.
- Published report on the conduct of 2002 voter registration exercise.
- Produced report on the assessment of INEC's preparations for the 2003 general elections.

Organization's role and degree of involvement in the action:

Project managed by TMG secretariat, in unison with zonal coordinators, state coordinators and member organizations across Nigeria

Donors to the action

- Open Society Initiative for West Africa (OSIWA)
No 11/plot 1266 Amazon Street
Maitama
Abuja